

“What Home Means To Me” Poster Contest

National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials

COMPETITION

State Competitions: Each State Association (CCHRCO, MAHRO, GAHRA, etc.) having a poster contest should select a 1st, 2nd & 3rd-place winner from each category (a total of 9) from entries submitted by their local affordable housing agencies.

Categories include:

- Elementary—K to 5th grade
- Middle School—6th to 8th grade
- High School—9th to 12th grade

SERC Competition: The selected winning state posters and essays must be received by SERC by June 17, 2016 for judging.

If you are mailing, please mail to:

Biloxi Housing Authority
330 Benachi Street
Biloxi, MS 39530
Attention: Helen Werby

If you are bringing them with you, deliver to:

Shannon Briggs or Jacob Oglesby at the Beau Rivage Hotel, Biloxi, MS

NAHRO Fellows will serve as judges for the contest.

Winning artists will be announced at the SERC Legislative Breakfast on Tuesday, June 21, 2016.

Three posters (the first-place winner in each category) will be forwarded to NAHRO for Housing America’s national “What Home Means to Me” competition.

NAHRO will only accept posters submitted through SERC’s competition.

Visit www.housingamericacampaign.org/what-home-means-to-me for complete rules.

Please join us at the SERC Annual Conference & Exhibit

June 19-22, 2016

Beau Rivage Hotel, Biloxi, MS

If you have questions, please contact Tina Akers Brown,
Housing America Regional Coordinator, at takers@gha-nc.org